

ADJUSTING TO THE NEW NORMAL: HELPING FAMILIES, CHURCHES AND COMMUNITIES RECOVER FROM HURRICANE FLORENCE

FARM BUREAU
NORTH CAROLINA

To help rural communities through this difficult time, North Carolina Farm Bureau's Hurricane Relief Fund has partnered with the Baptist Men Organization to offer Adjusting to the New Normal: Helping Families, Churches and Communities Recover from Hurricane Florence seminar series.

The seminar is designed to assist church and community leaders as they serve North Carolinians recovering from Hurricane Florence. Topics addressed will include: the impact of a natural disaster on the collective mental health of a community; dealing with compassion fatigue in the life of ministers, volunteers and community leaders; and ideas/resources to deal with grief, depression and marital stress. Additional resources will be provided including a copy of Wayne Cordeiro's book, Leading on Empty: Refilling Your Tank and Renewing Your Passion and a DVD entitled Running on Empty.

EVENT INFO

Keynote Speaker: Chuck Register, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Chuck served as a Senior Pastor on the coast of Mississippi during and following the landfall of Hurricane Katrina.
